wood.

LOCAL & GENERAL NEWS.

Diaries for 1884 at Oat & Co's.
REV. A. MACKINTOSH has almost recovered from his recent accident.
MORE of Lundborg's perfumery has been unpacked at Hollister's Fort Street store.
At the next lecture given at the Y.M.C.
A., a glass of water might be provided for the lecturer.
PROFANITY pays occasionally. A parrot with the largest assortment of oaths fetches the biggest price. (Progress.)
A DIVIDEND, in the estate of Lee Chat, of twenty five per cent on approved claims, will be payable on Monday at the office of F. T. Lenehan & Co.
"WHY they are not here" will be Mr.
Cruzan's theme Sunday morning, and "A Business Woman," in the evening, a sermon especially for young women.
A fund ought to be started in Honolulu to provide umbrellas for the Armenian women, who, when traveling, are exposed to the rain without any shelter.
At the Police Court yesterday, two cases of drunkenness were fined; Sam, for assault and battery, was fined $4 and costs; Kauli, for disorderly conduct, was sentenced to five days imprisonment.
THE Trustees of Oahu College have, through their Secretary, conveyed to Mr. Berger and his boys "their thanks for the rare and delightful musical treat furnished on the occasion of the late reception at Punahou."

Tonquim has gold mines which rival those of Australia and California, and the ladies gamble with gold as if it were of little value. At the mines on the Red River, gold is found not merely in dust, but in bars (quite a new discovery), and near the source of that river the precious metal is found in "large quantities."

French paper.
Mr. CRUZAN will conduct the Sunday afternoon service in the Y.M.C. A. Hall, and preach a twenty-minute sermon upon "A Note of Invitation for you." During the service, in addition to spirited congregational singing led by a large chorus, Miss Otto will sing a solo, Mrs.
Cruzan will sing "It passeth knowledge," and Mrs. Pierce and Mrs. Damon will sing a duet. A cordial welcome for all.

A BUS will leave Dodd's stables at 9 A.
M. every Sunday for the Waikiki baths.

THERE have been several leaks in the water pipes lately. The last was on Richard street yesterday.

ALL persons trespassing on the lands in the districts of Ewa, Waianae and Koolau, belonging to Colonel C. H.
Judd, will be prosecuted.

The hitching posts at the Y. M. C. A. were a great convenience on Thursday night; one carriage could not be induced to move away from them at all.

MR. BRYCE disputes the idea that Noah's ark has been discovered. He says that he has a piece of it. The story of the grease mark of Ham must have been a canard.

A little more than $400 has been already subscribed to the regatta fund. A programme, very similar to that of last year, is being prepared and will be submitted to a meeting to be held some morning next week.

Tenders will be received at the Interior Office, until 10 a. m. on Monday, for landing the immigrants by the Bell-Rock, and for supplying provisions for their maintenance. Full particulars in another column.

THE lawn tennis season commenced again on Thursday afternoon, when two tournaments were played simultaneously on one enclosure. There were many spectators, fun and merriment, pretty costumes, and evidences of want of practice after the recess.

THE tax office was closed during part of Thursday afternoon. Several gentlemen proceeded there to pay their five dollars a head to Mr. Hayselden, or such other person as may now be acting as collector, prior to the official gazette announcement of the authorized collector.

ONE man says that the Hesper must have run ashore somewhere, on her trip to the Sound, and thus taken her copper off. It is not likely that anybody on board would have known of her touching. Another man says that it must have been done in Newcastle. Neither of these theories seem to hold good, as marks of axes were seen in the ship's timbers; they are however creditable to lovers of the "gentle Hawaiian," who can do no wrong.

THE president of the Board of Education, acting under a resolution of the board, has filled the vacancies at the Royal and Fort street public schools:
Miss M. E. Winter, a sister of Mrs. E. R.
Hendry, has been appointed to the Fort street school, vice Miss Robertson resigned; Miss Whitney fills this position until Miss Winter's arrival. Miss F. E.
Otto has been appointed to fill the vacancy at the Royal school, caused by the resignation of Mr. Dow who relinquishes his duties at the end of this month.

THE base-ball match, between Maui and the Honolulu club, commences at two o'clock this afternoon. Messrs.
Ashley & Hebbard have volunteered to drive the visitors to the ground, who at the conclusion of the game, will be entertained by the local boys at a supper given in Mr. Clifford's house at the foot of Punch-bowl street. It would be an additional attraction to the game, if the band were allowed to play at the reserve, instead of at Emma Square, as almost all the town will go to see the match.

TWO unusual and unexpected visitors were received yesterday at the Station House in the shape of two Nene's or native Hawaiian geese. They were found by constable C. Kanoa at Pauoa, and, as their wings were cut he concluded that they had strayed from somebody's yard.
These birds, which are very uncommon now, are larger than a domestic duck and smaller than a goose; their heads are black, the neck is fawn colored, and the plumage of the body is brown and drab. The owner can have them on application to David Dayton.

THE local Astor House was the scene of a few shocks on Thursday evening, which made people think of the late Java disasters. The first one resulted in the breaking of a lamp, the second, though causing one side of the room to vibrate perceptibly, resulted in no material damage.

An error occurred yesterday in our account of the proceedings of the Privy Council. Instead of a set of rules being adopted for the guidance of the Minister of the Interior, we should have said that a Committee was appointed to draw up a set of rules, which will be published, for the guidance of the public, that they may know exactly what has to be done when making applications for charters.
